

Evan Guthrie Scholarship Application

Application Deadline: April 15, 2024

The Evan Guthrie Fund is aimed at grade 12 student-athletes from School District #23. The fund is in place to recognize an athlete's journey through sport and education. The goal of the fund is to help relieve some financial tension for the student-athlete in order to allow them to focus on their sport and educational goals.

Two scholarships will be awarded at $500.00 each.

Eligibility:

- Student must be graduating from School District #23 grade 12 in 2023
- Student must be participating in sport; either in-school or out-of-school
- Student must be in good standing with their respective high-school
- Student must use the funds for school fees at an accredited post-secondary institution, or for sport fees within 1 year of receiving.

Along with answering the questions below, please include:

- Letter of recommendation from a coach or teacher
- High school transcript

* Answers may be typed on a separate piece of paper
